IRISH ARMY TO STOP DISORDER

Delegates From All Parts of Globe in Paris for Irish Conference

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—Martial law has been declared in the Kilmallock area, by the brigade commander of the Irish Republican army at East Limerick, according to a telegram received here today from Charleville, County Cork. This action was taken, said the message, because of boy burning and other disorders in the area.

DELEGATES ARRIVING.

The American delegates, some of whom already are in Europe, are expected to arrive today and tomorrow. The lord mayor of Dublin arrived this morning. Eamon De Valera is expected to put in his appearance next week.

The congress was scheduled to open with an informal session this afternoon, but the first business meeting will be held Monday.

PROGRAM RESTRICTED.

Politics and religion are barred.

TAFT UNRECOGNIZED IN BOYHOOD SCENES

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 21.—William H. Taft, chief justice of the supreme court of the United States walked the streets unrecognized while viewing the scenes of his boyhood haunts on a recent visit to Cincinnati.

The chief justice started for a long walk from the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft, on Fourth and Pike streets. His route included Mt. Auburn, his old home place, and the streets about Woodward high school, which he had attended.

Mr. Taft found standing many houses which he remembered well, looking just as they did when he went to and from school, except that they were older in appearance.

A unique feature of his walk was that, while he visited sections, where he once had known hundreds of persons, he did not see a soul that he knew or that knew him.

"That shows how much things can change in twenty years," Mr. Taft said in discussing his "tour."

There is less than 1.5 acres of cultivated land for every person in Europe.

A Double Surprise.

OH LET IT GO, TOM IF IT'S GOING TO BE A LOT OF TROUBLE!

NO TROUBLE AT ALL, OLDMAN—I'LL FIND IT IN A MINUTE!

THANKS, TOM I'LL RETURN IT IN THE MORNING—I WANT TO OPEN A BOTTLE OF OLIVES FOR THE WIFE—

NEW COIN FACE DISPLACES ONE ALL AMERICA KNOWS

Miss Anna D. Williams (left), whose face appears on the old American dollar, and Mrs. Anthony Di Francischi, who posed for the new "peace dollar."

BY RUTH ABELING.

Since 1875 every American has been familiar with the face of Miss Anna D. Williams, head of kindergarten work in the Philadelphia public schools.

Because her face was the model of the design on the old silver dollar.

But, with the coming of the new "peace dollar," Miss Williams' place has been taken by Mrs. Anthony Di Francischi, wife of the young Italian sculptor who designed the new dollar.

Mrs. Di Francischi posed for her husband when he made the bas-relief that appears on the new coin.

I have talked to both of these women.

"Peace among the nations," said Mrs. Di Francischi, commenting on the change in the new dollar commemorates, "Oh, that's too big a thing for me to talk about."

"I'm only the wife of a sculptor whom I'm trying to help and inspire. 'But come in here—' the little woman was leading me to the studio—the front room in their attic floor suite."

"Right from the beginning I've been interested in Anthony's art," she said.

"I study and keep up with it and try to get ideas that will help."

"Anthony usually works until midnight and I must suit my day to his work. Since Anthony's is the greater work, I must submerge my plan—and that means peace and happiness for us."

And I wondered if this lovely little Italian woman had not, after all, found the principle of peace for the nations.

SELECTION AN ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Williams, model of the old dollar design, today is a white-haired woman, busily engaged in her kindergarten work at Philadelphia.

When she was a student at the Pennsylvania academy of fine arts 45 years ago, George Morgan, English sculptor, selected her as model for his silver dollar design. She insists her selection was an accident.

"Why, when I'm nearly of retiring age, should you talk to me of something that happened in my youth?" she asked.

"Now if you'd talk about kindergarten work, that would be a different matter."

And the best known face in the United States smiled good-naturedly.

OXFORD PUNISHES YOUNG COMMUNIST

OXFORD, Eng. Jan. 21.—Arthur E. Reade, a 26-year-old student of Worcester college, has been "sent down," otherwise removed from Oxford, a Communist journal of youth, for and for editing a revolutionary newspaper.

Young Reade came to Oxford from Elton, the most fashionable public school in England, last year and set forth his advanced views in "Free Oxford, a Communist Journal of Youth," an inter-university paper.

Lester H. Gray, the associate editor, has been "sent down" for two terms.

A general young giant, Reade publicly proclaimed his admiration for Lenin and his faith in the dictatorship of the proletariat. He gloried in the admission that his paper preached sedition. One of the offending paragraphs stated that the bourgeoisie would be offered the alternative of surrender or extermination, and that "the destruction of a few would terrorize the rest into surrender."

The Oxford university authorities believe that Bolshevik propaganda among the English youth is becoming a menace.

Leonid Krassin, the soviet trade envoy, tried to deliver an address in connection with the Russian famine relief in the hall of the union, the famous Oxford debating society, but permission to use the hall was refused, and Krassin delivered his speech in an assembly room belonging to the Society of Friends, admission to which was only gained by running the gauntlet of an uproarious crowd of non-supporters.

WEALTHY PARISIANS PLAY INDOOR GOLF

PARIS, Jan. 21.—Parisian golfers, unlike because of business to go to their country clubs, have brought a golf links right into the heart of Paris. An indoor golf club, unique in Europe, has just been opened on the Champs-Élysées, with putting greens transplanted from Dieppe.

The greens are laid in the middle of a long hall and tables are set around them so that members can dine and play at any time of day after a game. The lofty tunnel or hall where the game is played, is illuminated at night and makes possible practice shots of 40 yards.

When the ball hits the side curtains, it is returned to the green on an inclined plane. There are many ingenious bunkers of various shapes made of real turf. Practice in approach shots is afforded in many ways.

Membership in the new club is restricted to the members of the leading Paris clubs and 250 persons already have applied for membership. Indoor golf now is expected to become a popular sport among wealthy Parisians.

THE MARKET TREND

Investors are beginning to realize that the general trend for interest rates is downward. The supply of available money becomes greater month by month and the demand less
